

ALAT_Puzzle_Five

Created with EclipseCrossword — www.eclipsecrossword.com

Across

4. Ear protectors should be worn in areas such as _____ where the noise level measures above 85 decibels.
6. The group that does not get treated in an experiment.
9. Heat sensitive _____ and bacterial plates are monitoring devices that ensure washing equipment is working properly.
12. What a factor that can change the outcome of a research experiment is called?
14. After cleaning racks, the automatic watering equipment should be _____ before use.
16. In case of an animal bite the first 2 things to be done are: _____ the wound well with soap and water and notify your supervisor.
18. You should not clean dirty equipment in an animal room because organisms can become airborne and _____ the room.
19. Disease transmitted from animals to humans and from humans to animals.
20. Research facilities purchase their animals from _____ suppliers or vendors.
22. _____ matter and debris can impair the effectiveness of bleach as a bacterial cleaner.
24. Moisture in feed and bedding containers promotes microbial growth and _____.
25. In a research project, the group that is manipulated is called the _____ or test group.

Down

1. Particular disinfectant cats react to adversely.
2. Racks with built-in cages should be _____ every 2 weeks.
3. Clear theory to explain a problem or question.
5. The best ways to keep vermin out of an animal facility are: _____, proper waste disposal and properly constructed buildings.
7. First step in developing a research projects is the literature _____.
8. When you transfer a chemical from its original container you should be sure to _____ it.
10. Flexible rubber or plastic tubes
11. Animal facility personnel should wear _____ instead of regular clothing to protect themselves and the environment to microorganisms and toxic substances.
13. Gloves, scrubs and masks are all types of personal _____ equipment.
15. Lab coat or gown, mask, eye or face _____, gloves cap and protective footwear make up the proper PPE when handling nonhuman primates.
17. Eye protection device that covers the entire eye.
21. Chemical descalers remove _____ scale.
23. You should not _____ different cleaning chemicals as it can create substances hazardous to animals and people.